To Whom It May Concern:

This is America "The Land of the Free". More and more the government is taking away this freedom. To omit the ability to trade options in an IRA account to reduce risk and gain income as options were meant to be is unconscionable. Stay out of the legislating how we can earn a retirement. Having this rule in a broker account and not in our IRA account is a way you take away more of our money in taxes, since we can't gain this income in a tax free way.

Stop this now! It is taking our freedom away.
